

Education Fairs in Kyiv

On October 12, the International Educational Advising Center (EAC) in Kyiv held its first-ever educational advising fair in Ukraine. Public Affairs Officer Michelle Logsdon and American Councils Country Director Christina Pendzola-Vitovych opened the event that featured presentations and/or booths from the American-Canadian Consortium of Independent Schools (ACCIS); American Councils for International Education: ACTR/ACCELS; The American University of Paris; American University's School of International Service in Washington, DC; Dickinson State University; The Fulbright Program in Ukraine; The International Research & Exchanges Board (IREX); and Troy State University.

Thanks to the fair, nearly 230 Ukrainian students learned about U.S. college application procedures, financial aid options, standardized testing requirements, and international exchange opportunities.

On November 17–19, 2005 coordinators of Fulbright Program in Ukraine participated in the exhibition «Education and Career — 2005:»

- participation in round tables and seminars on students' research;
- round tables on international cooperation in educational sphere;
- youth programs and students' exchange programs;
- new technologies in education.

November 18, 2005

Participation in the Round table «Developing of Joint Educational Projects and Further Cooperation in Education» with representatives of foreign universities, of international educational programs and funds, vice-rectors on international cooperation and of Ukrainian educational elite.

Fulbright at Petro Mohyla Readings

Conference «Petro Mohyla Readings» dedicated to the 10th anniversary of Mykolayiv Petro Mohyla Humanitarian University was held in Mykolayiv on November 3–4, 2005. Fulbright Program in Ukraine was a co-organizer of the seminar on Modern American Literature as a part of this conference.

Fulbright alumna Olena Fediuk gave a lecture and two seminars on «Oral Tradition and Stories in Contemporary Written Prose and Movies by the Native American Writers and Artists.» The points raised by Fediuk served as the basis for a later discussion in the American Club in Mykolayiv.